

European Pancreatic Club 49th Meeting

www.epc2017.hu

June 28 - July 1, 2017
Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary

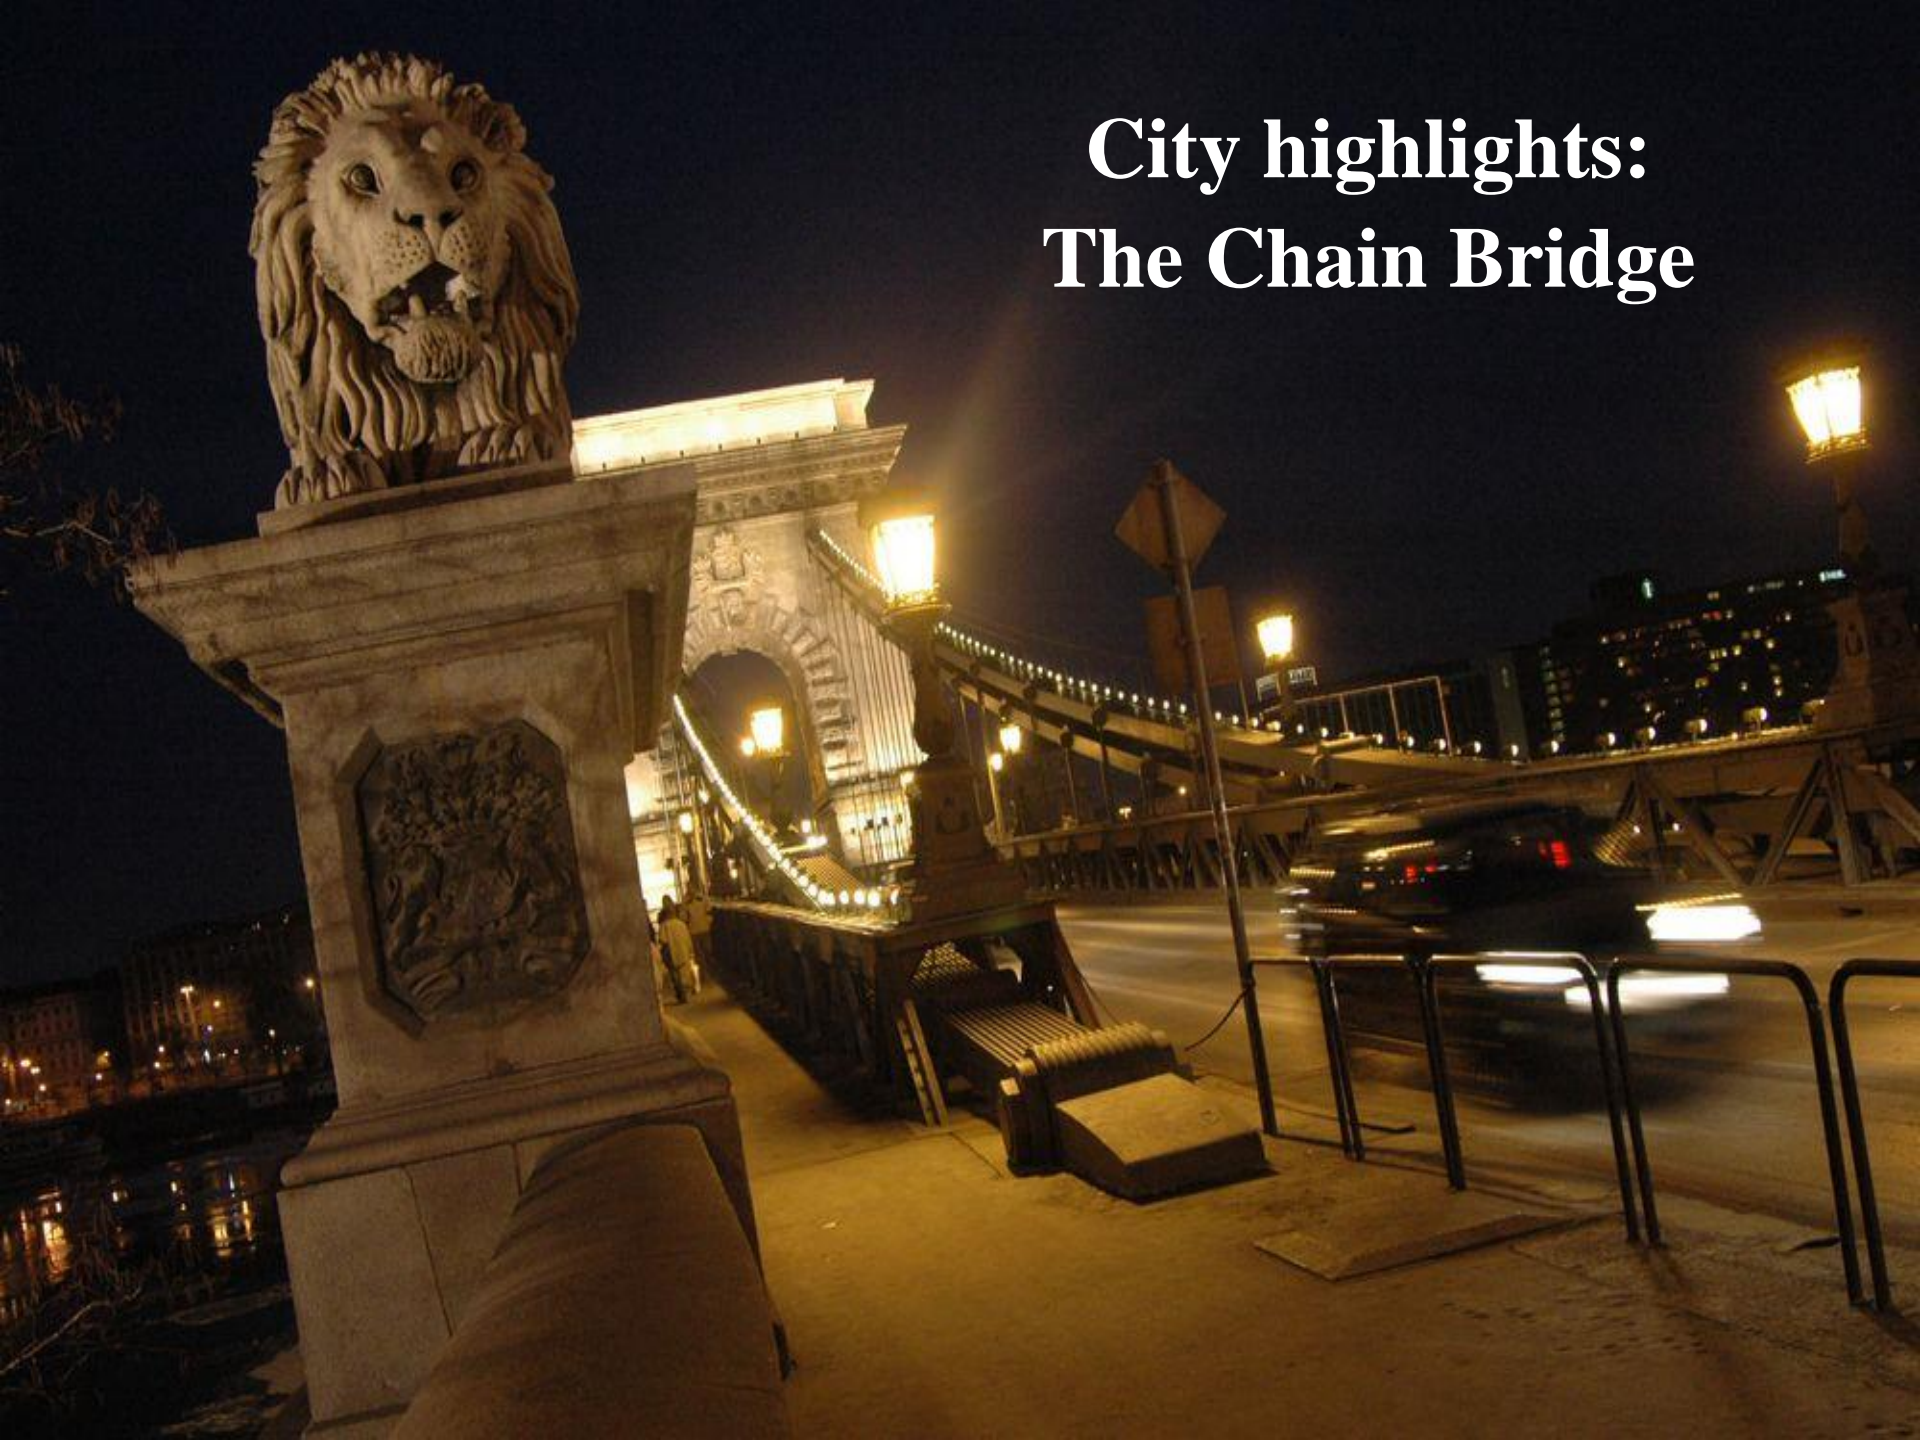

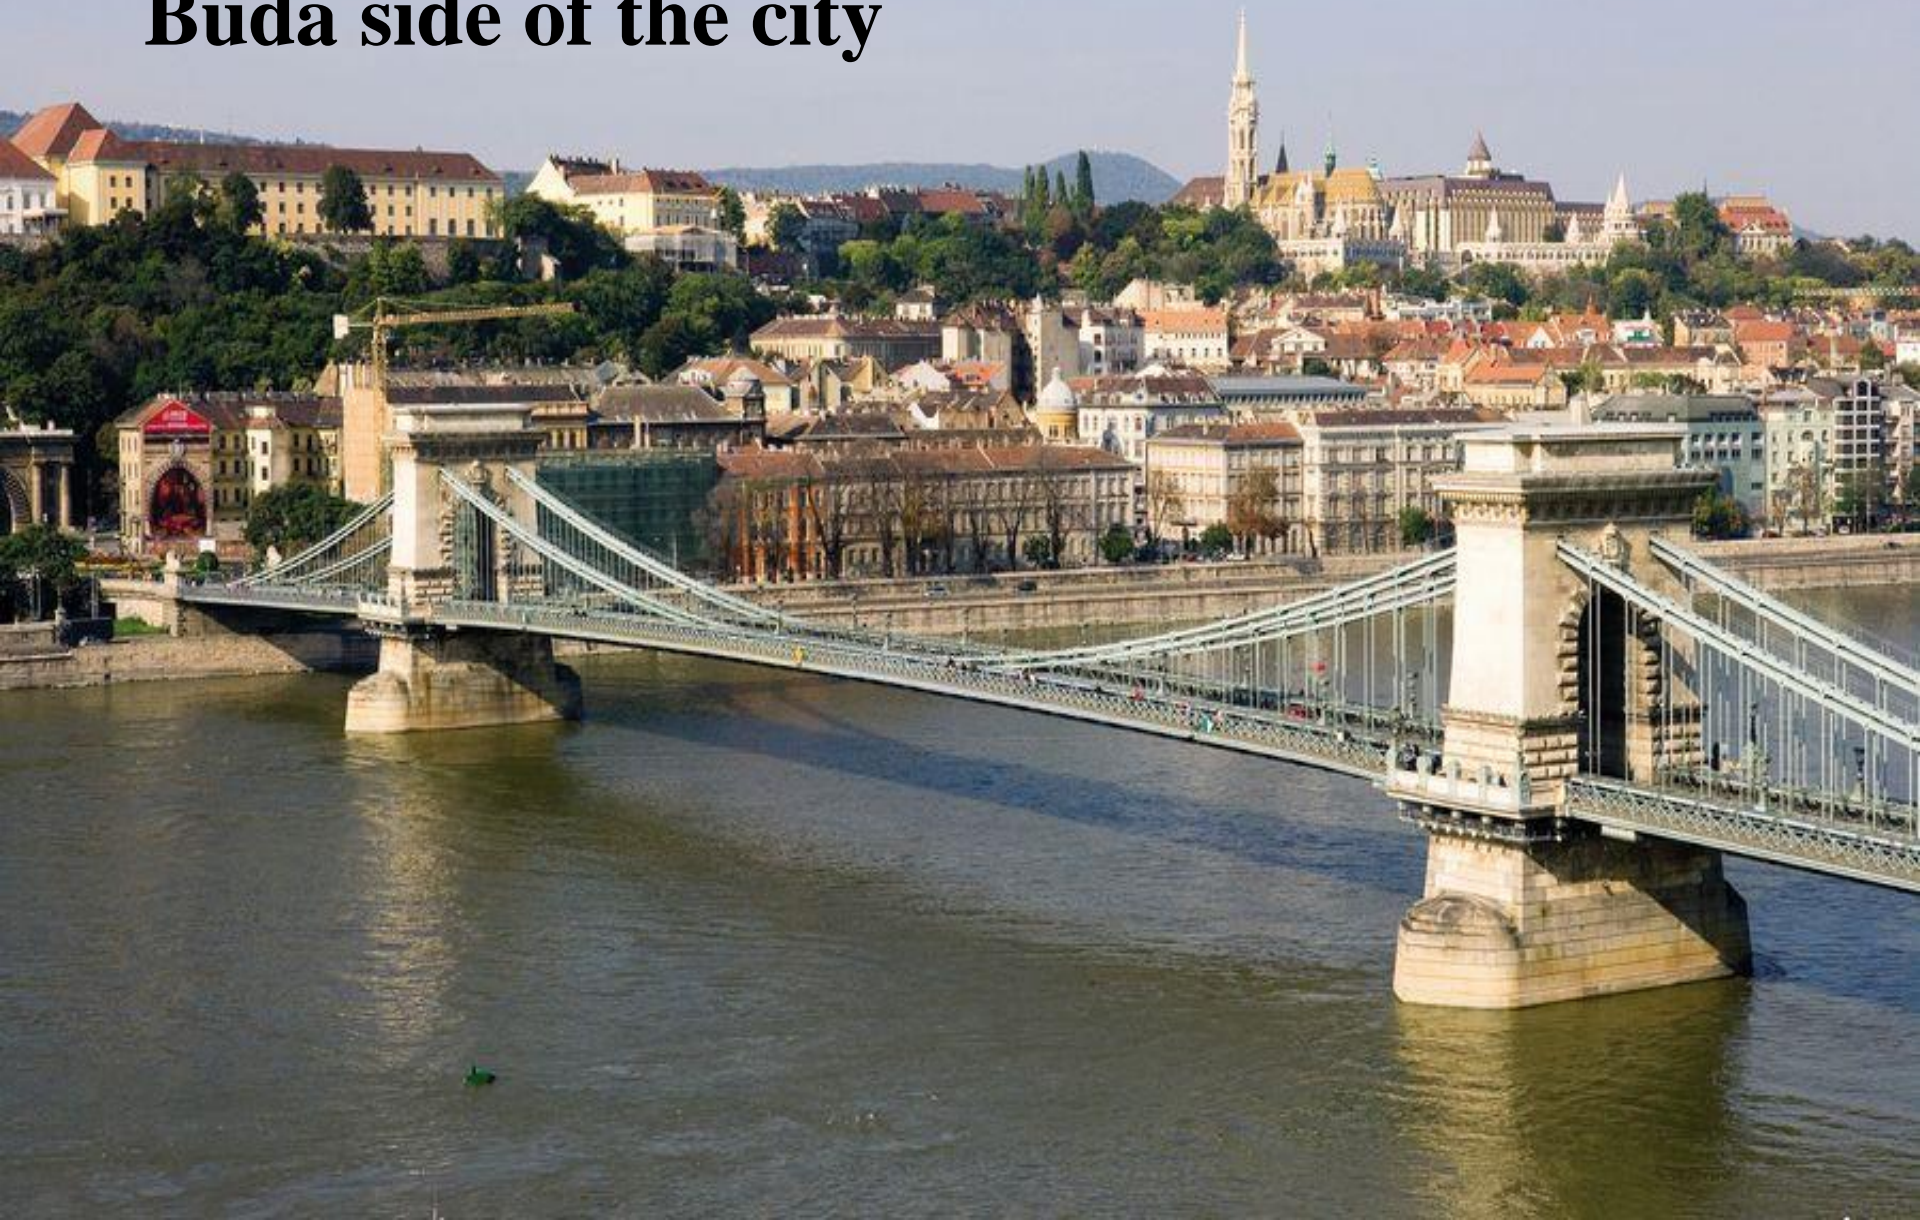

Arguments for Budapest

- A wide touristic offer
- A safe destination
- Geographically located in the very heart of Europe; very easy access from Eastern and Central Europe
- Within 2-3 hrs flight from all European capitals
- Economically affordable: many low cost airlines, large hotel room offer at reasonable price level
- One of Europe's most popular city for scientific congresses
